The Grapevine

British National Rally 2008

The 81st British National Caravan Club Rally will be held at Holkham Hall, Wells Next The Sea, Norfolk. The event will be held from 23rd-27th May.

It would be very pleasing to have a good South Wales contingent at the Rally again this year .

Booking forms are available from East Grinstead House or, alternatively, booking can be made on-line at The Caravan Club website, www.caravanclub.co.uk. Costs are ££18.50 per adult, children(12-17) £9.25 each, children under 12 free and an Outfit charge of £18.00.

Why not come along and join the South Wales Centre lines and sample the enjoyment of the British National.

56th Welsh National Caravan Club Rally

The Gwent Centre are hosting this year's 56th Welsh National Caravan Club Rally at Mount Ballan, Crick, Nr Chepstow by kind permission of David Broome.

Booking forms are available from any committee member or can be downloaded from the Centre's website.

Sports training in readiness for the National is currently taking place at Gilfach Goch Community Centre with Netball and Football on alternative Mondays. Tug of War is taking place at Treforest. Anyone interested in taking part can contact Matthew James and Ryan Clark, Sports Officers for details.

We are also preparing for the marquee events on our themed weekend rallies. Details can be had from Peter Crockett, Marquee Events Organisers

Good Luck to you all and here's hoping the Inter Centre Cup returns to the South Wales Centre

Charity Rally

We are bringing back the Charity Rally this year to raise funds for Children with Complex Bladder and Bowel Problems on the Children's Ward, Lansdowne Hospital, Cardiff.

If anyone wishes to help by running a stall then please contact Ceri Chant, Charity Co-ordinator or any member of the committee. Thank you.

Birthday Cheers

Happy Birthday goes to the following Ralliers:

Scott James and Berwyn Hier on the 1st April, our past chairman Ivor Squires, who is 73 on April 4

Our Centre Secretary who is 41 on April 13th and our Centre Youth Chair, Jodie James, whose birthday is 21st April.

Best wishes to you all from all your friends and family in the South Wales Centre

Condolences

It is with great sadness that we again this month have to give condolences to a Centre Member. On March 24th Mrs Teri Dyer from Ystrad Mynach passed away.

The centre send their Best Wishes to Dennis, Paul and family.

Apologises

In our December issue of the Grapevine we gave Get Well Wishes to Mrs Edith Squires who was going into hospital. Unfortunately we were given the wrong information and Edith did not have and operation on her knee but had a new hip.

May we wish Edith a very speedy recovery from all your friends in the South Wales Centre

Youth Committee

Our Youth Committee had started to raise money for the Children with Complex Bladder and Bowel Problems in Lansdowne Hospital, Cardiff. They are selling tickets for a Balloon Race which is taking place on their Rally at Atlantic College in July. Details can be found with Matthew James, Ryan Clark and Cath Rogers, Liaison Officers
